

PONTIFICIA UNIVERSIDAD CATÓLICA DE CHILE

University lectureship post

Assistant Professor in Urban mobility, planning, design and landscape.
Pontificia Universidad Católica de Chile, Santiago de Chile

Faculty: Architecture, Design and Urban Studies (FADEU), and Engineering

Position: Full time 44 hours, Assistant Professor

Description: The Pontificia Universidad Católica de Chile, through its Centre for Sustainable Urban Development (CEDEUS) – Fondap Project/Conicyt (Chilean government funding sources), wishes to employ an Assistant Professor in Urban mobility, planning, design and landscape. CEDEUS is a research centre for sustainable urban development that brings together researchers from different faculties. This specific post will be shared between the faculties of Architecture, Design and Urban Studies (FADEU), and Engineering. CEDEUS is a space for the creation and exchange of research-based knowledge that seeks to improve quality of life in urban areas, based on considerations of equity, environmental quality and efficient natural resource use. The Centre wishes to establish itself as a national and international reference point for research and debate on urban sustainable development challenges in Chile and also in relation to experiences in other countries.

Area of specialisation: Themes relating to problems such as: human behaviour and urban dynamics; strategic planning and urban design; policies, financing and implementation of contemporary, complex urban processes.
